

Michał Hendzel - Biography

Michał Hendzel is a professional dancer, dance instructor, choreographer and lawyer based in Los Angeles. His adventure with dance began in 2007. Initially associated with the well-known dance group UDS from Lublin, the finalists of Got To Dance and Got Talent.

He graduated from the UMCS University in Lublin at the Faculty of Law and Administration, thanks to which he constantly trains dancers and artists in the field of legal standards. A representative of the renowned artistic "Bloc Agency" in Los Angeles. However, talent is not everything, that's why Michał is constantly developing his skills by participating in training and workshops conducted by the best choreographers and instructors from around the world, including among others: Rhapsody James, Luther Brown, Kevin Maher, Lee Daniel. Participant of many artistic projects and TV productions, such as: "The Voice of Poland", "Your Face Sounds Familiar", "Dancing with the Stars".

More than once he danced alongside famous stars such as Margaret, Xxanaxx, Dawid Kwiatkowski, Ewa Farna, In-Grid and Alvaro Soler. Michał shares his dance passion as a certified instructor and choreographer of many projects and numerous dance workshops throughout Europe, including: Studio 68 in London or Lax Studio in Paris.

He has worked for renowned brands such as Puma, Balmain, Panasonic, Johnnie Walker, Mazda, Volvo and Mercedes. As a versatile dancer, he knows a wide variety of dance styles which led him to his newest passion, creating the original training project "CapCollective".

Michał is defined by the theory that hard work, determination and respect for oneself and others is the key to success.