

Trevor Santos – Biography

Trevor Santos, is a Melbourne born and raised dance artist (performer & choreographer) from humble beginnings as a self-taught dancer, Trevor has performed in live stadiums, theatres, music videos and TV. In the first 4 months of 2021, Trevor has experienced much success recently coming off a 6-week interstate tour and a season at Her Majesty's Theatre with 'Matador The Show', shooting for Lee Jeans Australia's latest campaign and receiving 4-star review in the Age for his first solo work '100 Haikus'. Trevor has worked alongside artists Guy Sebastian, Missy Higgins, Hayden Calnin, Sheppard, Kira Piru, Dual Manner and Hangeng (2012 MTV world artist). With over a decade of experience as an instructor and choreographer, Trevor has been able to teach in cities like Sydney, Gold Coast, Perth, Hobart and even Beijing, China. More recently, he has been seen teaching classes in New York (HNN experience, Ripley Grier Studios), Malaysia (The Experience Dance Workshop, Freedom Dance studio), and in his hometown instructing at VDF (Victorian Dance Festival 2019).

A highly sought after artist, both locally and internationally, he is a significant figure in the Melbourne dance scene. Passionate in his craft, Trevor continues to push his limits as an artist, finding time to train in other movement styles or interests.
